I understand and agree to these conditions for participation in AIDA events: Dance is a physical activity that includes close physical contact with other participants. Like all such physical activities, dance carries some degree of risk. The local AIDA Chapter, the National AIDA Committee, event organizers, instructors, judges, the venue, and any agents of those individuals or organizations cannot be held liable for injuries, illnesses, other health-related issues, or for any loss, damage, or theft of articles from event facilities during events. Persons attending the event do so at their own risk.

After payment is made for participation in the Spooktacular Ballroom Challenge, you will have 72 hours, or until the end of the day OCTOBER 17, 2021 – whichever occurs FIRST - in which you may change your mind and receive a full refund.

If the event is cancelled due to governmental restrictions regarding COVID-19, or because any of the principle entities (AIDA, the venues, or Examiners) cancel their participation and no alternative is available, all participants will receive a full refund without penalty.

If a dancer cancels more than 72 hours after payment or after October 17, 2021 – whichever occurs FIRST – there will be a penalty of: $20 per youth participant; $30 per adult participant. Any late fees will not be refunded. These penalties may be waived if the cancellation is due to illness or injury.
